

Creating a Mining Album

What to do

Part A: Writing a Mining Song

- 1 Brainstorm words and ideas that you could include in a mining song about rocks, minerals, metals, mining, and the environment.

Write your ideas in the organizer.

Review the list and circle the ideas and words you would like to include in your song.

- 2 Choose a favourite children's song to use as music for your song lyric.

- 3 Write your song, including as many appropriate mining-related words as possible and at least one big idea about mining. Remember to pay attention to the rhythm and rhyme pattern of the original song.

- 4 Practice singing your song.

- 5 Perform your song for your family.

I like heavy metal!

Part B: Designing a Mining Song Album Cover

You have been hired by a large recording company to design an album cover for the song.

Devise a group name, a title for your album, and a list of the songs that will appear on your recording. Illustrate your album cover. Everything on your album cover must relate to rocks, minerals, metals, mining, and the environment.

Read, Read, Read Your Words

Lyrics by Lenna Rhodes

Sing to the melody: Row, Row, Row Your Boat

Read, read, read your words.

They all begin with M.

Miners, minerals, and metals too.

They all begin with M.

Read, read, read your words.

They all begin with M.

Machines, mechanics, and mining too.

They all begin with M.
